Numb. 4901

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday September 15. to Tuesday September 18. 1711.

Cologn, Sept. 11. N. S.

THey write from Duſſeldorp, that the Elector Palatine propoſeth to ſet out from thence on Tueſday next, in order to repair to Frankfort; from whence we are advis'd, that the Articles of Capitulation are in ſo great a Forwardneſs, that it is hop'd the whole will be finiſh'd before the end of the next Week. The Pope's Nephew, Signior Albani, tries all he can to gain his Point in favour of the late Electors of Cologn and Bavaria, and to make out the Pretenſions of the See of Rome in relation to Comachio; but hitherto all his Endeavours have been ineffectual. The late Elector of Bavaria continues at Luxemburgh, where it is now reported, that he intends to reſide the greateſt part of the enſuing Winter.

Hamburg, Sept. 15. N. S. We have Letters of the Thirteenth of Auguſt from Moſcow, adviſing, that publick Rejoicings had been made in that City for the Peace concluded with the Turks, and that moſt of the Perſons of Quality reſiding there, had been ſplendidly entertain'd by the Princeſs, his Czariſh Majeſty's Siſter, on that Occaſion. Tho' all our Letters from Vienna and Conſtantinople agree, that this Peace is made excluſive of the King of Sueden, yet the Suedes affirm, that the Czar is oblig'd, by virtue of an Article in the Treaty, to leave the Poles to themſelves, and ſuffer 'em either to adhere to one of the Princes already choſen, or to proceed to a new Election. Monſieur Schaphiroff, Vice-chancellor of Muſcovy, who was ſent to Conſtantinople on the Twenty-fourth of July for the Grand Signior's Ratification of the Treaty, being not yet return'd, it is thought his Suediſh Majeſty has found ſome means to retard it. A General Officer in the King of Sweden's Service, has ſent word to a Miniſter here, that his Majeſty will ſpeedily appear in theſe Parts, and put a ſtop to the Progreſs of the Confederates in Pomerania. They write from Warſaw, that the Czar of Muſcovy paſs'd through that Place on the Fourth Inſtant: And we are ſince adviſ'd from Pomerania, that his Majeſty was ſpeedily expected in that Country, where there continues a great Deſertion in the Daniſh Army; for which Reaſon, the Elector of Hanover publiſh'd an Order on Sunday laſt, forbidding his Subjects, under ſevere Penalties, not to receive or harbour any of thoſe Deſerters.

Hanover, Sept. 15. N. S. Our Letters from Pomerania import, that the King of Denmark's Army, which was advanc'd near Stralſund, is retir'd towards Wiſmar, which Place they ſeem preparing to Beſiege, whilſt the Saxon Troops block up Stetin and Stralſund; but, as the Daniſh Forces have been much diminiſh'd by Sickneſs and Deſertion, it is thought they will meet with many Difficulties in the Execution of that Deſign. It is more generally believ'd, that their Intentions are to take up their Winter-Quarters in the Duchy of Mecklenburg: And this Apprehenſion ſeems ſo well founded, that the Duke of Mecklenburg has ſent hither Major-General Craſſaw, with the Character of Envoy to this Court, in order to induce his Electoral Highneſs to interpoſe his good Offices in that Affair, and get his Country exempted from thoſe Quarters. The Major General has had an Audience ſince his Arrival, and continues ſtill here. As the Dutchies of Holſtein and Breme, are in like manner expos'd to the Danes, it is reſolv'd here to take all poſſible Care for the ſecurity of the laſt of thoſe Provinces. At the ſame time we are aſſur'd, that the Court at Berlin, are entring into neceſſary Meaſures for the Preſervation of the Pruſſian Territories. They write from Warſaw of the Fourth Inſtant, that his Czariſh Majeſty arriv'd there the ſame Day in the Afternoon, with the Chanceſſor of Lithuania. According to theſe Letters, the Muſcovite Forces are to remain for ſome time in Volhinia, in order to obſerve the King of Sweden, who, by virtue of the late Treaty of Peace, is to be conducted through Poland into his own Dominions. General Janus is arriv'd very ill at Caminieck, but Lieutenant General Ronne is ſtill on the other ſide the Neiſter. The Tribunal of Jaroſlow, having deputed the Palatine of Podolia, and ſome other of the Nobility to the Czar, to requeſt of him in the Name of the Republick to withdraw his Forces out of Poland, his Majeſty has been pleas'd to promiſe 'em, that the ſame ſhall be done in ſix Weeks time. His Czariſh Majeſty was expected the Tenth at Dantzick, from whence he will proceed into Pomerania, in order to have an Interview with the Kings of Denmark and Poland. General Ronne, and ſome other Officers, are directed to follow him thither with the Troops under their Command, and the reſt of the Army will have Orders to march into Livonia. We are told the Contagion begins to appear again at Cracow, Lublin, and other Places in Poland.

Bruſſels, Sept. 19. N. S. They write from the Frontiers, that ſeveral of the French Garriſons in Flanders and Artois, are on the March to join the Army under the Command of Mareſchal Villars, in order, as they give out, to attack the Allies, in caſe they lay Siege to Queſnoy. The Garriſon of St. Omer are already arriv'd between Bac-a-Bencheux and Ferſi, where they are join'd by four Battalions out of Arras. As they imagine our Army will not be able to move from Bouchain theſe ten or twelve Days, they expect that all the Forces, that are marching towards 'em, will be come up before that time. Their Army is in want of many Neceſſaries; for which Reaſon, the Soldiers continue to deſert in great Numbers, notwithſtanding the Precautions that have been taken to prevent it. They write from Paris of the Eleventh, that the Court was to remove from Fontainbleau on the Monday following. The Armies in Savoy, and on the Rhine, continue in their former Situations, without attempting any thing of moment on either ſide. It is expected that the Forces under the Command of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Savoy, will ſpeedily decamp, in order to paſs the Mountains; immediately after which, the greateſt part of the Troops detach'd to Dauphine, will be directed to file off towards the Army in Flanders.

There